Special Relief to Security Personnel Facing Various Charges

2511. SHRI NILOTPAL BASU: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government decided to provide special relief to the security personnel facing various charges of violation of human rights in Punjab;

(b) whether this declaration to offer special relief to the Punjab Police personnel facing charges will not be unconstitutional, undemocratic and illegal; and

(c) can the Home Minister offer pardon to the police personnel pending finalisation of the cases against them in the High Court and Supreme Court?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI CHENNAMANENI VIDYA SAGAR RAO): (a) to (c) There is no proposal to provide any special relief to the security personnel facing various charges of violation of human rights in Punjab. However, legal protection is already available to security personnel in the discharge of their official duties, under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and special laws like the Punjab Disturbed Areas Act, 1983.
